

The Maze at Benson Farms

4pm-10pm Fri.; noon-10pm Sat.; 1-6pm Sun
$9 ages 12 & up; $8 college students w/ID;
$7 ages 4-11; free for ages 3 & below; add $1 for the haunted mazes

The 54 acre maze has 14.88 miles of trails in four phases ranging from easy to moderately difficult. Each of the long mazes includes 10 passport questions on American history, corn, religion and sports. A correct answer points you in the right direction to follow. One phase gets haunted after dark on Friday and Saturday nights. The maze is at Benson Farms in Denton. Call 795-3276 or visit www.bensonfarms.com for more information.

Troika Ranch Dance Company:
“Loop Diver”

7:30pm Thurs. & Fri.; $30

Troika Ranch produces live performances, interactive installations and digital films, which combine aspects of these forms to create artwork that reflects and engages contemporary society. “Loop Diver” has been commissioned by the Lied Center. The performance is at the Lied Center for Performing Arts. For more information call 472-4747.

“King of the Moon”

7:30pm Fri. & Sat.; 2pm Sun.

$20 adults; $10 students

In this hilarious, heartfelt sequel to “Over the Tavern,” the Pazinsky family has left the conservative 1950’s for the rebellious 1960’s. Prior knowledge of this working-class family is not a prerequisite to appreciating their ongoing trials and triumphs. As Apollo 11 is about to land on the moon, the family gathers to honor their late father’s memory and quickly become entangled in each others’ problems. The play is at the Lincoln Community Playhouse. Call 489-7529 for more information.

Backyard Composting

10am – noon Sat.; free

Learn how to compost in your back yard through a training session by UNL Extension and the City Recycling Office at the Pioneers Park Nature Center’s backyard demonstration area. Attendees will receive a free compost thermometer or plastic compost bin. No registration is necessary. For more information call 441-7895.

Lincoln Symphony Orchestra: The Firebird

2pm Sun.; $10 adults; $5 students

With the grace and beauty of shadow puppetry and performing to the 1919 “Firebird Suite” composed by Igor Stravinsky, the Madcap Puppet Theatre tells the story of kind Prince Ivan, who captures the Firebird. Come for an afternoon of storytelling and adventure, and a pre-concert musical petting zoo. The event is at O’Donnell Auditorium on the Nebraska Wesleyan campus. Call 476-2211 for more information.

UNL Soccer vs. Texas A&M

1pm Sun.; $5 adults; $3 seniors & youth;
free for ages 6 & under

Come out and watch the UNL Soccer team compete against #16 Texas A&M. These two teams are Big 12 rivals. The team will be warming up in pink supporting breast cancer awareness month. The first 200 people through the doors will receive breast cancer awareness bracelets and rings. The match is at the UNL Soccer Field. For more information call (800) 8-BigRed or visit www.huskers.com.
